

Judicial Ticket.

For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court—
DAVID TAYLOR, of Fond du Lac.
For County Judge—
ALFRED P. PHILLIPS, of Janesville.

Mr. Cleveland has given the country one conspicuous illustration that he proposes to do as he pleases.

A few weeks ago solemn high mass was celebrated in Copenhagen for the first time since the Reformation. The occasion was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the priesthood of the Rev. John Eub, Apostolic Prefect in Copenhagen. Complete religious toleration now exists in Denmark.

The assembly has concurred in the senate bill to establish a state public school for dependent and neglected children, the vote being 49 to 21. The bill appropriates $30,000 for the school, and provides for the erection of the buildings on the cottage plan, under the direction of the state board of supervision.

George Washington's body servants ought all to be dead by this time, but one dies another springs up. There is an old colored woman at Fishkill Landing who claims to have kissed Washington lots of times. She also claims to be about one hundred years old, which would make her fourteen years old at the time of Washington's death.

The suspension of "The Dial," published in New York, gives an impression that it is "The Dial" published by Jensen, McIlwain & Co., of Chicago, which does that excellent journal and its enterprising publishers a great injustice. "The Dial," published in Chicago, is one of the best literary periodicals of its kind to be found in this country, and the Gazette is glad to learn that it is meeting with prosperity. It deserves the highest praise as well as the most flattering success.

The assembly bill to provide for a fifth state normal school came up in the senate on Friday morning, and Senator Harrison who attacked the bill with some pretty hot shot, said that the original design of these schools was to educate teachers, but showed from the official records of the number of graduates from them that they were utterly incompetent to supply the places, and that the chief reliance must be placed on the high schools, the colleges and the university; that it was unjust to these institutions and not in the interest of education to divert the money which should be devoted to these institutions and expend them in building up more normal schools. The bill was defeated in the senate, but the vote was reconsidered and the bill laid aside for further consideration.

A long-headed democrat in New York, who has been watching the progress of events in that state for a few weeks, has made public the statement that "this Pearson business will give the state to the republicans this year, just as Hayes snubbing of his own party gave the state to the democrats in 1877. The democrats, to win, will have to hold every independent republican vote they got last year and keep all the democrats they then had. That is an impossibility. The republicans are almost certain to nominate Seth Low for governor. The movement is on foot for him at the present time. What will that result in? Why, every independent republican, not excepting Curtis, Schurz and Beecher, and any number of disaffected democrats will vote for him and the democrats will be beaten by 50,000 votes."

A late decision of the supreme court of this state, regarding the liability of innkeepers, presents a curious case. The facts are that a certain man registered at a Milwaukee hotel to stop there over night, and handed $102 to the hotel clerk for safe-keeping. The clerk gave a receipt for the money, but, instead of depositing it in the hotel safe, put it in his pocket, and "skipped out" before morning. The guest sued the proprietor for the amount of the deposit. The lower court decided that the proprietor was liable because the money was left with the clerk instead of with himself. In the course of the trial it transpired that the guest had been accompanied to the hotel by a woman to whom he was not married. The case was appealed, to the supreme court, which decided against the guest on the ground that he was at the hotel on an unlawful errand, but intimated that otherwise the hotel proprietor would be responsible for the acts of the clerk as his agent.

THE SCIENCE HALL BILL.

Early in the present session of the legislature a bill passed the assembly appropriating $275,000 for the rebuilding of science hall and other buildings connected with the state university. A good many members of that body thought the amount considerably too high just at this time, but Colonel Vilas's eloquent speech in favor of the bill was exceedingly pleasant to hear and put the assembly in a first rate mood for supporting the measure. It passed by a large majority and went to the senate. There the eloquence of Vilas did no effect. It was a matter of dealing with cold figures, and the senators must the question fearlessly and well.

Dr. Lord, who is never found napping when a subject of this kind is before the senate, made an excellent speech in opposition to the appropriation of $275,000, and strongly favored cutting down the appropriation to $231,000. He made a very timely suggestion that the democrats in the legislature were encouraging extravagant appropriations for the purpose of adding the responsibility upon the republicans. After quite an exciting debate in which a good many senators took part, the amended bill of $231,000 passed by a vote of 19 to 9.

The amount called for in the bill as it was originally introduced into the assembly was $339,000. The assembly reduced the amount to $275,000, by reducing the appropriation for gymnasium from $45,000 to $30,000; and by striking out $30,000 from the item for apparatus, equipment, etc., and leaving only the insurance money received—in all $80,000. The senate reduced the amount as passed by the assembly from $275,000 to $231,000, by striking out the appropriation for gymnasium $35,000, $5,000 from chemical building, and $5,000 from heating apparatus; in all $45,000.

The Gazette is free to express the opinion that the senate did a good thing in reducing the appropriation.

THE DUTY OF REPUBLICANS.

The republican party of Janesville has a majority of from 200 to 350 over the democrats, and there is no reason why every candidate on the republican city ticket ought not to be elected. There is not a property holder in Janesville but that will admit that Mr. Valentine is not only an exceptionally strong candidate, but that a more competent and otherwise worthy man for the office of mayor, can not be found in the city. He not only enjoys, in an unusual degree, the confidence and respect of his fellow citizens regardless of party, but he is thoroughly acquainted with every department of the city government. He is an excellent presiding officer, has the courage to do that which is right, and in all things is fair-minded.

We presume there is not a democrat in the city who has intelligence enough to read his ballot and has anything to do with municipal affairs, that will take issue with us in saying that Mr. Church is one of the very best city clerks Janesville ever had, and that there does not live in the city another man who can fill that office with greater efficiency and with more satisfaction than he. He certainly has distinguished himself as a most competent and faithful public officer thereby earning the support of the people.

The republican city convention did wisely in selecting John J. Comstock for treasurer. He is one of those men in whom everybody has the fullest confidence. He is an excellent business man in every respect, and besides that, he is honored with an integrity of character that cannot be shaken. It would be an honor to the republicans of Janesville to cast their solid vote for Mr. Comstock.

All those interested in our educational progress will most heartily endorse the nominations of S. B. Smith and E. B. Heimstreet as school commissioners-at-large. They are men of progressive ideas, and are fully acquainted with the needs of the schools, and the republicans should see to it that these candidates do not fail of an election.

We hope the republican party of Janesville will stand up for its ticket on Tuesday and elect every man on it. It can do it if it will try, and not to do it will be an egregious blunder and a piece of stupid injustice.

ABOUT THE TREASURY SURPLUS.

The readers of the Gazette will readily remember that during the late campaign, Mr. Hendricks went about the country making the statement in his speeches that there was more than $400,000,000 of cash in the treasury of the United States, which was doing no one any good, and he promised the people that if Mr. Cleveland was elected, this vast surplus would be "poured forth" to refresh the parched and thirsty fields of trade. When Mr. Hendricks started this lie about the treasury surplus, other democratic orators who did not know what they were talking about, took up the falsehood and repeated it in every county in the north.

The Gazette at that time showed that the statements made by Hendricks and his followers were false from beginning to end; that he knew and that the democratic press knew, that the government was keeping no more cash on hand than was necessary to redeem silver certificates and pay the general expenses of the government.

The Chicago Times referring to Hendricks's false statements uses this language: "Although the falsity of this statement was shown over and over again, the Eosian statesman went on repeating it to all his audiences that he thought were stupid or uninformed enough to believe it. His only excuse was the wretchedly immoral one that all is fair in war; in plain English, that all is right by which you can gain a few votes. Long after the election, when even this miserable excuse no longer existed, Mr. Randall told an audience in Louisville that there was in the treasury fully $1,000,000,000 more than ought to be there, and intimated that when the president-elect took the reins in hand this mass of idle money would forthwith be applied to the purchase or payment of bonds, and so pass into the channels of circulation. Mr. Randall, as chairman of the committee on appropriations, and as a man of long experience on that and other leading committees of the house, ought to have known better than to say any such thing. But it seems he did not know better, and a good many cabinet state-makers did not know better than to suppose that President Cleveland would put Mr. Randall at the head of the treasury department; in other words, that he would turn a bull loose in a china shop."

Well, now that Mr. Cleveland is president and we have a democratic secretary of the treasury, what are the facts regarding the treasury surplus? They are just the same as they were under republican rule. Mr. Manning shows that there is $484,774,000 in the treasury, and Hugh McCulloch, in his last statement, showed about the same condition of affairs. Both statements agree as to the surplus beyond what is required under provisions of law for special purposes, and at present it is about $22,000,000, the same as during the last months of President Arthur's term.

FOR HONOR AND LIFE.

A BRAVE GIRL'S HEROIC FIGHT WITH A BRUTE.

Saved From Death by Her Father's Dog—
A Fearful Struggle Nobly Maintained—
Tamed—On the Track of the Murderer.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 4.—A dastardly outrage was committed late Friday afternoon, near Rockland, Baltimore county, Md. The victim, Miss Kate Gray, aged 19 years, daughter of D. C. Gray, one of the wealthiest and most highly esteemed residents of the county, is lying at the point of death, and her recovery is extremely doubtful. About 4 o'clock, Thursday, Kate walked as far as the railway station with an elder sister. The distance was only one mile. She started homeward alone, and had proceeded about half the way, when she met Howard Cooper, a burly negro farm-hand well known in the vicinity. Cooper called her by name and immediately after a social hour. A desperate struggle ensued. Once releasing herself from the negro's grasp, Kate picked up a large stone and hurled it at Cooper, striking him on the head. The blood sprang to his forehead, and he again seized the young lady, knocking her insensibly with a club and dragged her over a fence into a dense wood. Here Kate regained consciousness and the struggle was renewed. This struggle, Miss Gray states, lasted two hours, the young lady defended herself with extraordinary courage. Cooper beat her unmercifully with his fist and a club, and at last accomplished his selfish purpose. He was followed by two more accomplices as they fled, and they were again seized by the heroic conduct of Miss Gray, and then, after beating her until she was unconscious, the fiend dragged her 300 yards, and, believing her dead, he threw the body into a ravine. Cooper was in the act of covering the body with dry leaves and firing them when the loud barking of a large dog belonging to the young lady's father frightened him. Just as the negro was in the act of kidnapping the girl's brother, a club, Bianca, the dog, came sprang out of the bushes, and Cooper fled. The noble dog had followed her trail and undoubtedly saved her life. The incessant barking and howling of Bianca alarmed Mr. Gray, who upon going to see what caused the dog to act so, Miss Gray was rescued. She was carried home and after a few hours was able to tell the terrible story of the outrage. Pursuit was at once organized, and was kept up all Thursday night. About 8 o'clock the pursuers learned of Cooper being near Towson, but before their arrival he had fled. At noon Friday forty men on horseback, heavily armed and carrying a rope, started after the villain, and it is said now that they are on his track. That he will be lynched if caught there is not the shadow of a doubt. Miss Gray is in a critical condition, her head is badly cut, and her left ear nearly severed from her head. Despite her exhausted condition she has given a detailed account of the affair. She states that after she had struck him with the stone he also picked it up and stamped her by loading her over the head with it.

Action in Land Entries Suspended.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 4.—General Land Commissioner Sparks Friday ordered that final action in the general land office, upon all entries of the public lands, except private cash entries, and such scrip-entries as are not dependent upon acts of settlement, must be suspended in all the following localities: viz: All west of the first guide meridian in Kansas; all west of range 17 west in Nebraska; the whole of Colorado, except lands in the late Ute reservation; all of New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming and Nevada, and that portion of Minnesota north of the indemnity limits of the Northern Pacific railroad and east of the indemnity limits of the Chicago, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway. In addition to this final action on the general land office will be suspended upon all timber entries under the act of June 3, 1878, which have not already been examined, and also upon all cases of desert land entries.

What Is a "Spiritual Affinity"?
QUENEO, April 4.—The court of review has made an important decision, disposing of a dangerous pretension on the part of the ecclesiastical authorities. The case was that of one Francis Heurax, whose second marriage with a widow named Pagan had been ecclesiastically annulled on the ground of "spiritual affinity" from which an Episcopal dispensation had not been obtained. Heurax applied to a civil court to confirm this annulment, but the court decided in favor of his wife, ruling that the civil code did not recognize such a cause of nullity as spiritual affinity. The court of review confirms this decision.

Vessel Building in New England.
BOSTON, April 4.—The aggregate number of new vessels built in New England during 1884 was forty-one steam vessels, valued at $907,000; 140 sailing craft, and seven large barges, valued at $2,015,200—a total value of $3,922,200. The comparison with the previous year shows a decrease of nearly 24,000 in the gross tonnage of the new vessels, and a decrease (estimated) of $1,000,000 in the value of the product.

Fire in a Clothing House.
BALTIMORE, April 4.—About 3 o'clock Friday evening fire broke out in the fourth story of the building 242 West Baltimore street, occupied by Wiesnfeld & Co., clothing. The fire extended to the fifth floor, and gutted both the fourth and fifth stories. The loss on the stock and fixtures is about $70,000, while that on the building will be about $15,000. There is on the stock an insurance of $14,000.

School Attendance Made Obligatory.
TRENTON, N. J., April 4.—The house Friday passed a bill requiring all children between the ages of 7 and 15 years to attend school at least twenty weeks each year, eight of which shall be consecutive, except the children are mentally or bodily disqualified. No child under 12 years shall be put at labor unless he or she shall attend day or night school the twelve weeks immediately preceding.

The Kaiser to Bismarck.
BERLIN, April 4.—The emperor wrote to Prince Bismarck on the latter's birthday: "You, dear prince, know that I have always the greatest confidence in you. These lines will serve the cause. You are a faithful and loyal devoted emperor. WILHELM."

Four People Drowned.
MEANS, Ind., April 4.—Johnson Pyle, a farmer, his 10-year-old son and two farm laborers were drowned in the Wabash river here Thursday night by the capsizing of their boat. The men, it is said, were intoxicated, and the boy was not strong enough to manage the boat alone.

Another Coal-Fit Tragedy.
BRUSSELS, April 4.—A terrible explosion of fire-damp occurred Friday in a coal mine near Charleroi. Eighteen miners were killed outright and many more wounded.

THE DEMOCRACY.

They Assembled in the Several Wards Last Evening.

And Selected Delegates to the City Convention.

And Nominating Ward Officers.

The democrats of the several wards held their ward caucuses last night for the purpose of selecting delegates to the democratic city convention to be held this evening, and for nominating ward officers. The caucuses were all largely attended, and nominations were made in all except the second ward. The chief managers of the party in the second ward hearing that the republican candidate for alderman had declined, concluded that with the bitter feeling existing in the democratic ranks in connection with the candidates for the aldermanic honors it would be better to defer the nomination until the republicans put up their man, and at the suggestion of the chairman of the caucus, a motion to that effect was made and adopted by a very small majority. As a matter of record, we publish the doings of the several ward primaries as follows:
